Yowell Saddlery Company.

A Curiosity.

Friday we stumbled onto the running gear of a wagon at Pierceall & Drescher's that looked to be strong enough to carry a freight train.

It was made, but not completed, by Maj. Jno. L. Owen before he entered the Confederate army. The hubs are of black locust, axles of oak, spokes of hickory and the fellows of oak. It would take a 4 1-2 inch skein to fit it. It is of the old lynch pin order and had never been ironed and only partially put together.

It had been taken to the factory a few years ago with the idea of putting the parts together and exhibiting at the fair. But under the stress of business it had been put in a corner out of the way and there it has rested in peace since.

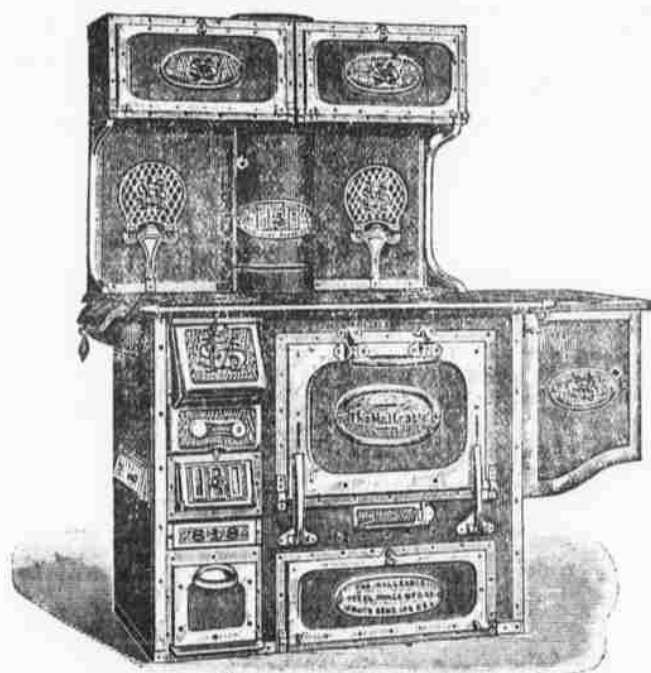

W. A. Morthland and wife, of near Warren were Monroe visitors Friday.

J. E. Spiker was called to La-Harp, Ill., Friday by the death of his sister, Mrs. Eliza Edwards.

I will make you good prices on Sewing Machines, any style. Come and see me, you are always welcome. Hamilton, see him for Furniture.
